ChinaAMC(HK) Appoints Clarence Chan as Head of ETFs

(Hong Kong, 9 Aug 2021) China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited (“ChinaAMC (HK)”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Clarence Chan as Head of Exchange traded funds (“ETFs”), effective from 2 Aug 2021.

In his new role, Clarence will be responsible for driving the growth of ChinaAMC (HK) ETF business, reinforcing the firm’s leading position in the region. Based in Hong Kong, he will directly report to Mr. Tian GAN, CEO of ChinaAMC (HK).

"We are thrilled to have Clarence take the reins in this new role," said Tian GAN, CEO of ChinaAMC (HK). "Clarence’s decades of solid experience in both ETFs and portfolio management allows us to expand our ETFs products to provide new investment opportunities for investors."

Clarence said, “ChinaAMC (HK) is a highly reputable asset manager in Asia with strong ambitions to grow its ETF business in the world, building on the successful and well-established platform it has in Hong Kong and mainland China. I look forward to working with the team to bring more pioneering products, while delivering solid growth for our investors.”

Clarence brings over 16 years of ETFs and index experience and decades of portfolio management experience to his new role. Most recently, he worked with BMO Global Asset Management (Asia) Ltd. and served as Managing Director, Head of ETF Asia and Head of ETF Portfolio Management . Prior joining BMO in 2008, Clarence worked as a Beta Strategies portfolio manager at BlackRock including his years with Barclays Global Investors. Previously, Clarence was a portfolio manager at Exelion Capital. He also held investment roles at Morgan Stanley Investment Management, and Morgan Stanley Capital International Inc.
