New Capital Investment Entrant Scheme (New CIES) Eligible fund

Investment involves risks, including the loss of principal. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Before investing in the ChinaAMC MSCI India ETF (the "Fund"), investor should refer to the Fund's prospectus and respective KFSs for details, including the risk factors. You should not make investment decision based on the information on this material alone. Please note:

- The Fund aims to provide investment result that, before fees and expenses, closely corresponds to the performance of the MSCI India Net Total Return (USD) Index (the "Index").
- The Fund is passively managed and falls in the Index may cause falls in the value of the Fund. The Fund is subject to tracking error risk, trading risk with discount or premium and multi-counter risk.
- The Fund majorly invests in equity securities in India and is subject to equity market risk, geographical concentration risk, emerging market risk, risks associated with India and the India equity market such as higher market volatility and potential settlement difficulties etc.
- The Fund is a FPI registered with the SEBI and is subject to risk related to FPI investment restrictions and registration. Taxation of income and capital gains in India is subject to fiscal law of India, and capital gains tax rate varies depending on various factors including holding period of securities. India Rupee is currently not a freely convertible currency and is subject to foreign exchange control policies by the Indian government. Such laws, rules and guidelines on FPI, Indian tax rates and foreign exchange control policies are subject to change.
- The Fund's base currency is USD but its underlying investment may not be denominated in USD, and the Fund has listed units traded in RMB and HKD counters and unlisted classes designated in currencies other than USD, therefore subject to fluctuations in exchange rates.
- Listed and unlisted classes are subject to different pricing and dealing arrangements. NAV per Unit of each class may be different due to different fees and cost.
- Units of listed class are traded in the secondary market on an intraday basis at the prevailing market price, while units of unlisted class are sold through intermediaries based on the dealing day-end NAV. Investors of unlisted class could redeem at NAV while investors of listed class in the secondary market could only sell at the prevailing market price and may have to exit the Fund at a significant discount. Investors of unlisted class may be at an advantage or disadvantage compared to investors of listed class.
- Distributions will be made in the USD only. Unitholders of distributing classes without USD account may have to bear the fees and charges associated with currency conversion.
- The Fund may at its discretion pay distribution out of capital or effectively out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions may result in an immediate reduction in the NAV per Unit of the Fund.

Investment Objective

The investment objective is to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of the MSCI India Net Total Return (USD) Index.
